

UHC2030 Working group on Sustainability, Transition from Aid and Health System Strengthening

Objectives of IHP for UHC 2030

1. Contribute to improve coordination of HSS efforts for UHC at global level, including synergies with related and technical networks
2. Strengthen multi-stakeholder policy dialogue and coordination of HSS efforts in countries, including adherence to IHP+ principles and behaviours in countries receiving external assistance
3. Contribute to accountability for progress towards HSS and UHC that contributes to a more integrate approach to accountability for SDG3
4. Build political momentum around a shared global vision of HSS for UHC and advocate for sufficient, appropriate and well-coordinated resource allocation to HSS

Objective of the group

Aim: To explore roles, responsibilities and opportunities for collaboration among DPs, expert networks and countries to enhance efforts to sustain increased effective coverage of priority interventions with financial protection, in countries transitioning from aid

Scope approved in first online meeting

Scope:

- Build consensus around core issues and objectives in response to the transition from aid, exploring revenue and health system efficiency considerations, as well as approaches to strengthening accountability for results.
- Develop guidance and principles for good practise pertaining to countries transitioning from ODA support, with regard to financial, programmatic and capacity issues, including but not limited to e.g. how to develop country-specific transition plans to balance the transition schedules of multiple funding partners.

Scope approved in first online meeting

Scope:

- Explore the types of reforms and investments needed to support an effective transition process, particularly in relation to building strong and unified underlying support systems, such as for procurement, supply chain, information, as well as capacity for evidence informed priority setting processes.
- Define an annual work plan for the group, outlining key outputs and products and help convene parties to review progress.
