

UHC2030 STEERING COMMITTEE
10th Session – 8 & 10 March 2022
Videoconference (Zoom)

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

Objective

To agree UHC2030's aspiration and actions to get UHC progress back on track in 2022-2023, specifically:

- Our strategic goal and priorities for 2022 and 2023
- Our vision and roadmap for the 2023 UN High-level meeting on UHC
- Our contributions to key opportunities/moments, outcomes and actions for 2022 (i.e. global political and financing and regional- and country-level decision making) on the road to 2023.

Strategic goal and priorities for 2022-2023

Making progress towards achieving UHC has never been more urgent. The COVID-19 pandemic has reinforced the conclusion that countries must invest in resilient and equitable health systems based on primary health care to achieve both UHC and health security goals. Health is an investment in the future well-being and safety of all and contributes to broader socio-economic progress and prosperity.

However, progress towards UHC is off track. Before COVID-19 struck, the world was far short of reaching the Sustainable Goal (SDG) 3.8 targets and the on-going health crisis has worsened this. The UHC2030 State of UHC commitment review shows that despite an increasing number of commitments, governments are not acting on their promises and gaps persist between policy, implementation and results.

In 2022-2023 we must therefore renew our collective energies across UHC2030's membership to mobilize political commitment, demand and track accountability, and promote collective action for stronger health systems – building on the health systems “push” we launched in 2021 and linking to preparations for the 2023 High-level meeting on UHC.

Our 2022-23 goal: Help countries get back on track in accelerating progress towards UHC by 2030.

Our strategic priority: Shape conversations and action to strengthen health systems for UHC and health security, including meaningful outcomes from the UN High-Level Meeting on UHC.
